The auswers to this petition recited that Chief of Police Clack had positive information that Sullivan did commit a crime in the State of Mississippi, and that he believed this crime was a penitentiary offense to the laws of Mississippi,

Counsel argued at length, and finally Judge McAllester rendered his decision He was very emphatic in his opinion that to hold Sullivan longer would be a most arbitrary act on the part of the court; that the officers had arrested him without warrant or authority of law; that misdemensors were not extraditable by the rulings of Tennessee courts, and by precedents by Governor Taylor. Pittsburgh is one of the strongholds of the order in this country, as it is the headquarters of the State Grand Lodge, and with a view of securing an explanation of the trouble, a copy of the dispatch was shown to Mr. Charles Babst, Representative of the Jurisdiction of Pennsylvania in the Supreme Lodge, who easily explained the trouble.

"That dispatch," said Mr. Babst, "is a most unfair statement of the case, and is manifestly supplied by three disgruntled members of the Order in Cincinnati. For some years past things have been going wrong there. Men have been admitted to membership in direct violation of the laws of the Order—men wholly unfit, morally and physically, and who could not have secured admission except by the illegal connivance of the officers. The result has been that the death rate in Cincinnati has reached and averaged the unpercedented number of 28 per 428 per consequence of the officers. he unprecedented number of 28 per the remainder of the jurisdiction of Ohio they have averaged 10.26, and the membership outside of Cinciunati has been taxed unduly heavily and unjustly in consequence. At last the burden became too great to be borne longer in silence, and we were threatened with the loss of Ohio entirely. Accordingly, at the next meeting of the Supreme Lodge at Omaha the matter was considered, and it was finally decided to considered, and it was finally decided to divide Ohio, creating Hamilton county (Cincinnati) into an independent district for assessment purposes, and fixing the maximum number of assessment at 28, proper basis. Haytian affairs:

Matters are going to an extreme in Hayti, for Legitime is arming women and placing them in the ranks. He is costing to everything possible to strengthen his position, which is far stronger than currently reported.

The Kearsage had a rough passage south, but mansged throughout to keep south, but mansged throughout to keep laytien in the Province of the North From this place she speeded to Port Au. Haytian affairs: arriving at this place all the Haytim flags, as well as foreign flags, were found to be at half mast in respect to the memory of Legitime's mother-in-law, who had died the day previous. The only Haytian man-of-war in port was the Dessalines. In the city everything was found to be quiet.

Mayor Brown has not signed the resolution setting aside the $40,000, but he will not veto it. It will become operative to-night without his signature.

A dispatch from Chicago states that General Martin, of the Illinois Department, who was chosen to draft the order discouraging attendance at the Encampadjourned till Saturday to await further developments. The sentiment, however, was to hold a reunion despite the boycotting circular of Department Commanders from eight neighboring States. Mayor Brown has sigued the resolution appropriating $40,000 for tents for the G. A. R. Encampment, the Encampment Council having pledged themselves not to expend a cent of the money until the date of the Encampment is settled.
